
SuperWalk Awards Program

These awards are designed to recognize remarkable events and walkers/volunteers throughout Canada.

Two awards will be given annually:

SuperWalker of the Year – to recognize a walker whose contributions to the event, enthusiasm for SuperWalk and its goals, or fundraising success has made an outstanding contribution to their local SuperWalk. Nominated by peers through the nomination form and determined by a to-be-assembled panel.

SuperWalk Volunteer of the Year – to recognize a walk coordinator or committee volunteer whose contributions were integral to the success of their local walk. Nominated by peers through the nomination form and determined by a to-be-assembled panel.

SuperWalk Award Nomination Form

These awards are presented to volunteers or SuperWalkers nominated by their peers who exemplify commitment to the walk and their community event.

SuperWalker of the Year – to recognize a walker whose contributions to the event, enthusiasm for SuperWalk and its goals, or fundraising success has made an impact on their local walk and Parkinson Canada. Nominated by peers through the nomination form and determined by a to-be-assembled panel. While fundraising totals may play a role in the nomination/decision process, it is not the only determining factor.

SuperWalk Volunteer of the Year – to recognize a walk coordinator or committee volunteer whose contributions were integral to the success of their local walk and to Parkinson Canada. Nominated by peers through the nomination form and determined by a to-be-assembled panel.
